5. France vs Brazil

Diferenças culturais engraçadas, em 4 "rounds" com um card para a França e outro para o Brasil.

Slide 1 – Capa: France vs Brazil — The little differences you'll notice in your first week.

Slide	Tema	In France	In Brazil
2 – Round 1	Saying hi	La bise: 2 kisses… or 3, or 4, depending on the region.	One kiss on the cheek or a big hug. Even with someone you just met.
3 – Round 2	Being on time	On time means on time.	A party at 9pm? Showing up at 10pm is perfectly normal.
4 – Round 3	The shower	Hot water from a boiler.	Meet the chuveiro elétrico: an electric shower head. Less pressure = hotter water.
5 – Round 4	Food	Dinner is the big meal of the day.	Lunch is king: rice, beans, meat and salad. And "pão francês" is nothing like a baguette.

Slide 6 – Final: Which one shocked you? — …tell us in the comments. + bloco Chez Toi BH + DM @cheztoibh

6. Brazil Myths

Os mitos que os alunos franceses perguntam antes de chegar, cada um com a realidade.

Slide 1 – Capa: Brazil myths, busted — What French students ask us before they arrive.

Slide	Mito	Realidade
2 – Myth #1	"Is Brazil dangerous?"	Like any big city, it depends on where and how. Stick to the basics — Uber at night, phone in your pocket — and you'll feel at home.
3 – Myth #2	"Everyone speaks English"	Not really. Many young people speak some, but a few words of Portuguese go a long way.
4 – Myth #3	"It's always hot"	Not in BH! Winter (June–August) brings chilly nights. Pack a jacket.

Slide	Mito	Realidade
5 – Myth #4	"Brazilians speak Spanish"	It's Portuguese! And an "obrigado" will make people smile much more than a "gracias".
